

What are your favorite hobbies?

Playing guitar, gardening, stonework and travelling.

Who has been your greatest mentor and why?

Bobby Clarke, former center of the Philadelphia Flyers. As a young man, Bobby's determination, leadership and charisma fueled this team to win the Stanley Cup. He was a pioneer as a type 1 diabetic who was able to compete in a physical and competitive environment well ahead of the field of medicine being able to support how to manage his health condition. He was fearless and focused on his goals to win the coveted Lord Stanley's Cup with his team, in spite of this condition.
